

2010 Power Up User Conference

Keynote Speaker - Paul Huschilt

Paul Huschilt is a certified speaking professional and award-winning professional speaker & storyteller who has worked in The United States, Canada, The Netherlands, France and most recently in Japan. He presents in English & French, (and most recently even in Japanese.)

Huschilt's expertise ranges from Humour, Stress, Goal Setting and Workplace wellness to totally customized comic conference wrap known as The Ultimate Ending™. His educational achievements include a Master of Arts Management Degree from Carnegie Mellon University, a BFA (Acting) from the University of Windsor, a diploma in Career Counselling and a certificate in Adult Education.

Huschilt has produced entertaining and inspiring DVD versions of his popular keynotes entitled 7 Humour Habits for Workplace Wellness and The Fool Climbs it Twice. Both provide life lessons that help you to be your best and do your best at work and at play. Best known for his ability to reawaken—in an outrageously funny manner—your passion for the things that are most important to you, Huschilt is a contributing author of the best-selling business book Awakening the Workplace.

Encore
Business Solutions

