

Get your data whenever you need it!

Prophix Mobile eliminates down time with access to live data on the go. Work online or offline. Analyze your organization's performance in meetings, from a remote office, during customer visits, or from anywhere in the world.

Prophix on the iPad, with an interface you'll love

Secure on-demand reports offer a personal touch, allowing you to review your updated data through the comfort of the iPad's interface. Save, share, or print as needed. Prophix Mobile is purpose-built for the iPad, incorporating gestures and swipes, with no web browser required!

Broaden engagement across your organization

Share reports securely with stakeholders, without the risk of data falling into the wrong hands. This functionality can help to earn buy-in from IT leaders, who may be looking for solutions to integrate with their mobile device strategies.

Prophix Mobile adds the perfect complement to your company's existing solution
